WELCOME TO AFTERNOON TEA

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to Afternoon tea at The Chester Grosvenor.

We have been happily observing this delightful British tradition since 1882.

We believe Afternoon Tea should be an absolute indulgence so our team take the utmost care to make every morsel, every sip and every moment as special as it could possibly be.

We have an excellent team of highly trained pastry chefs led by Executive Chef Simon Radley, who work tirelessly to recreate and reinvent our French pastries on a monthly basis.

A BRIEF HISTORY

The Grosvenor Afternoon Tea has always been borne from a sense of ceremony. In the late nineteenth century at The Chester Grosvenor the ladies would take it by themselves in their own private sitting rooms and parlour on the first floor of the hotel, where today you would find the gallery and the Eaton Suite. Meanwhile men would remain downstairs in the Tap!

Like today the cakes were frivolous, the tempo of the service was calm and unhurried, and it was altogether about more than just food, but about history and splendour.

In The Arkle Bar and Lounge today, we like to think we create an atmosphere, steeped in the narrative of the building, that allows you to step back in time, and heightens the pleasure of the occasion.
